October Highlights

Thursday, October 8 4:30pm : Warrior Cat Gathering. Fans of the Erin Hunter book series can join a clan, talk with other fans, share their fan art and writing, and answer trivia for prizes.

Tuesday, October 13 6 - 7pm: Dolores Hydock will present “Putting Down New Roots,” sponsored by the Alabama Humanities Foundation.

Ellis Island was the entryway into the United States for millions of people at the turn of the 20th Century. National storyteller Dolores Hydock brings this snapshot of history to life through funny, tender stories that turn immigration data into a moving, human-scale story.

Thursday, October 15 6pm: Geronimo Stilton will be here! Stay tuned for more information!

Friday, October 16 10am: FYI Friday! Children ages 8-12 are invited to join us on the third Friday of each month at 10:00 AM. Each month, we will meet a different professional, learn about their interesting jobs, and do fun, hands-on activities. This month: If you’ve ever wanted to turn your ideas into a book, join us as we visit with Canadian author Kallie George via Skype.

Sunday, October 18 2:30pm: Life-Size Monopoly! Bring the family for a supersized gaming afternoon. Snacks provided.

Tuesday, October 20 6pm: Intro to genealogy. Mary Anne Ellis, Librarian at the Southern History Department of the Birmingham Public Library, will lead an informative introduction to local and online resources for researching you family history.

Thursday, October 29 beginning at 4pm: A Very Harry Halloween Party. Dress up as your favorite character, crafts and activities will be available, Harry Potter and the Sorcerer’s Stone will play on the big screen. A new illustrated edition of Sorcerer’s Stone will be given away.
